

the vessel, at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

“(c) The Secretary of the Army may, after investigation, by rule, regulation, or order, designate such areas as he may deem proper as ‘special anchorage areas’; such special anchorage areas may from time to time be changed, or abolished, if after investigation the Secretary of the Army shall deem such change or abolition in the interests of navigation. When anchored within such an area—

Special anchorage areas.

“(1) a vessel of not more than sixty-five feet in length shall not be required to carry or exhibit the white light required by this rule;

“(2) a barge, canal boat, scow, or other nondescript craft of one hundred and fifty feet or upward in length may carry and exhibit the single white light prescribed by paragraph (a) of this rule in lieu of the two white lights prescribed by paragraph (b) of this rule; and

“(3) where two or more barges, canal boats, scows, or other nondescript craft are tied together and anchored as a unit, the anchor light prescribed by this rule need be displayed only on the vessel having its anchor down.”

SEC. 4. Subparagraph (d) of rule numbered 15 in section 4233 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (33 U.S.C. 331), is further amended to read as follows:

“(d) A vessel when at anchor shall, at intervals of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds, except that the following vessels shall not be required to sound this signal when anchored in a special anchorage area established pursuant to paragraph (c) of rule 13:

“(1) a vessel of not more than sixty-five feet in length; and

“(2) a barge, canal boat, scow or other nondescript craft.”
